Brentwood school is one of the UK's leading independent schools.

Steeped in almost 500 years of history, we take our heritage seriously and it still remains the backdrop of our school today. From an early age, we encourage pupils to be dynamically intellectual, culturally creative and develop independence, so by the time they leave sixth form, they are well prepared for the expected, but can also tackle the unknowns. The school is one of the few schools that encourages boys and girls to be taught separately between the ages of 11-16. The school not only offers GCSE and A Level courses but also IB courses.
